Wath CofE Primary School History Assessment

Year 2

Themes: The lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements. – Florence Nightingale A local history study - Wath

Areas of Learning	Expected outcomes:	Pupil notes: W or G
Chronology	Develop an awareness of and is comfortable with the term 'the past'
	Use common words and phrases relating to the passing of time, including 'then' and 'now', 'old' and 'new'.
	Know where all people / events studied fit into a chronological framework.
	Identify similarities and differences between periods.
	Fit people / events in a chronological order.
	Understands that simple stories have a beginning, a middle and an end and can correctly sequence a small number of events of simple fiction / a rhyme.
	Can sequence within a clock and to some extent in calendar times.
	Realises that we use days to describe events in time eg: 1666 for Great Fire of London
Similarities and	Identify similarities and differences between periods.
Difference	Make simple observations about different types of people, events, beliefs within society.
Change (and	Identify similarities and differences between ways of life at different times.
continuity)	Understand 'then' and 'now' – be able to spot differences between then and now.
	Offers reasons why simple changes occur.
	Recognise and understand that not everyone in the past had the same experience.
Causation (and	Recognise why people did things, why events happened and what happened as a result.
consequence)	Can give a simple reason why a real person acted as they did in a historical situation.
	Can give simple consequences of somebody's actions.

	Can give a clear explanation of an event, giving two or three reasons why the event took place.
	Recognise and talk about consequences of events / peoples' actions. (eg how do we know about The Great Fire of London / Why do we remember Florence Nightingale?)
Significance	Talk about who was important.
	Understand that a place / a person/ an event or an object could be significant.
Interpretation	Identify different ways in which the past is represented.
	Identify some ways in which we find out about the past.
	Choose and use from stories and other sources to show understanding.
	Begin to understand that we have different views of familiar events and we cannot always remember what happened in the past.
	Understand and recognise that there are different versions of real historical situations and can spot the differences between versions.
	Understand that people can disagree about what happened in the past without one of them being wrong.
Evidence Using Enquiry	Can describe the main features of an artefact and make deductions about them; spotting clues to their function and use.
	Can use information from two simple sources to find information.
	Can find answers to questions by looking in books.
	Understands that we can use a range of sources to find information.
	Can ask simple, but relevant questions.
	Children can spot the differences between two different sources and can come to a conclusion as to the most common view.
	Children can make deductions from photographs, going beyond the literal and what they can see.
	Children can see there are potential weaknesses in eyewitness accounts.

Communicating	Ask and answer questions.
Historically about the past	Can orally retell the main parts of a past event.
	Choose and us parts of stories and information they have been questions.
	Writes simple captions to describe, label or annotate. Writes a number of captions, using connectives to describe, label, annotate or sequence.
	Writes simple sentences containing period specific information and vocabulary.
	Make use of subject specific precise vocabulary to communicate about the past, either orally or in written work.
Vocabulary	Soldier Nurse Cenotaph Nation War
Overall pupil assessmen	nt
Pupil working below age-related expectations		Pupils working above a	ge-related expectations	